THE CZAR UNPATRIOTIC.

Berlin, Feb. 17.—The Morgen Post asserts that bitter discontent is prevalent in Russia because the czar has ostentatiously shown his displeasure at the outbreak of the war between Russia and Japan.

His manifesto refused to go to Moscow to issue his customary proclamation and he also refused to attend a service at St. Isaac's Cathedral. The czar is accused of a lack of patriotism.

DESTROYED BY MINE.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 17.—The Russian second class cruiser Boyarin was blown up by a mine February 13 similar to the Russian torpedo transport Yenisei. One hundred and ninety-seven officers and men, it is understood, were lost.

The report that the Boyarin was blown up and all her officers and crew lost has been confirmed from a private source.

The Boyarin was 148 feet long, 84 feet beam and 16 feet draught, of 3200 tons displacement and her trial speed was 25 knots. Her armament consisted of six 4.7-inch guns, eight 1.8-inch guns, two 1.4-inch guns and three machine guns. She was also fitted with six torpedo tubes. The Boyarin was last reported as having taken part in the engagement of February 9 at Port Arthur.

SIX HUNDRED FROZEN.

Berlin, Feb. 17.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Tagliche Rundschau says that six hundred Russian soldiers were frozen to death while marching across Lake Baikal, Eastern Siberia. The correspondent adds that the temporary railroad across the lake is not yet completed, that a large detachment of troops was sent on a 23 mile march over the ice-covered lake and that it is presumed that part of these troops lost their way in a snow-storm and perished.

JAPAN TRAPS THREE.

Seoul, Feb. 17.—The Korean government has granted Japan the right to traverse the country. It is said that Japanese warships have trapped three Russian ships off Yongpho.

WAR NEWS SUMMARY.

New York, Feb. 17.—The Herald publishes the following summary of its war news:

A skirmish between torpedo boats in the gulf of Pechili is reported.

The Japanese fleet is said to have established a base on Elliott Island, near Port Arthur.

The Russians have heavily reinforced Kin Chow and Nuchwang.

Port Arthur, panic stricken during the bombardment is again tranquil.

There were four hundred torpedoes on the Voria, two-thirds of Russia's entire store in those waters.

Russia's minister to Korea has left the country by order of the Japanese. The latter are in full control of the peninsula.

SAD NEWS.

OF HIS MOTHER'S DEATH RECEIVED BY ATTORNEY W. V. EATON.

Attorney W. V. Eaton received a telegram this afternoon stating that his mother, Mrs. John L. Eaton, dropped dead this morning at her home in Scottsville, Ky.

Mrs. Eaton had been in failing health for some time, from rheumatism and dropsy. She was able to be up this morning however and death came entirely without warning.

She was 54 years of age and left a husband and four children besides her son here. Attorney Eaton left for Scottsville this afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Spaulding have returned from Morganfield, where they carried the remains of their little daughter, Annie Laurie, for burial.

NICHOLAS II., CZAR OF RUSSIA.

TROUBLE PILES UP.

FOR THE REBELS IN SAN DOMINGO.

Washington, Feb. 17.—The rebels in San Domingo committed another breach of international law, which may justify the United States government in intervening to restore order and protect the property in the island. Minister Powell reports to the state department that he received belated advice from Jean Villain, the vice-consular general at Samana, dated February 9, to this effect:

"Insurgents entered our consulate at Samana with armed force and took two refugees out."

The state department promptly communicated to the navy department with a request that proper action be taken to protect the United States consulate. It is the belief that Admiral Wise will demand the punishment of the perpetrators of this outrage and if the provisional government is not able to do this he will employ the United States naval force to chastise the insurgents.

COMMITTEE ON HAND

TO MEET TRAIN BRINGING NON-UNION MEN.

Mr. Bruce Filley, employed by the E. Rehkopf Saddlery Co., who is now in Texas employing non-union leatherworkers, was expected home today with a force of workmen and a committee of local union leatherworkers who are on a strike against the Rehkopf people, were at the train to meet the men and ask them to return home and not work here.

Mr. Filley did not arrive, however, but is expected tonight. The committee from the union will continue to meet the trains and will try to persuade the newcomers not to work here.

BOLD THEFTS.

TWO MEN LOSE MONEY AND PROPERTY AT INGRAM HOUSE.

A man named Ivy, of Graves county, reported to the police this morning that last night at the Ingram House, on Fourth street, near Monroe, where he was stopping, some one entered and stole a suit of clothes, watch and pocket change.

A man named Tobe Scott, of Woodville, claims that from the same room some person took $20 from his pocket book containing $400. The money was under his head, and why it was not all taken he does not know.

Mr. Robert McTyre was called to Sturgis last night to attend the funeral of his mother, who died yesterday.

TOUCHING SCENES

Funeral of the Late Senator Hanna at Washington.

Eminent Men There—Oration By Chaplain Hale—Floral Designs Were Magnificent.

TO BE TAKEN TO CLEVELAND

Washington, D. C., Feb. 17.—The state funeral of Senator Hanna in the senate chamber Wednesday was very impressive. It was attended by the president and cabinet, diplomatic corps, members of the house and senate and the galleries were filled with prominent men and women. The funeral oration was delivered by Chaplain Hale. Floral tributes were numerous and the most exquisite ever seen in Washington. The remains, accompanied by the family leave for Cleveland this evening.

In appearance the features of the dead statesman are very life-like. They indicate little emaciation, and on account of the oxygen used during the last days of the senator's sickness there is an absence of the ashen pallor peculiar to the dead.

The house convened at 11:45 a. m. today when the members marched in a body with Speaker Cannon at their head, to the senate.

Secretaries Taft, Cortelyou and Wilson will go to Cleveland to attend the services there.

The remains of Senator Hanna were conveyed from the hotel to the capitol at 11 o'clock this morning. Preceding the hearse and the carriages containing the members of the family and invited friends was a detail of mounted police. The casket bearers were officers detailed from the capitol police force.

The casket will not be removed from the senate chamber until 5 p. m., but the chamber will be closed.

Shortly before that time the committee on arrangements will meet to escort the remains to the Pennsylvania depot. The body will be conveyed at 5 o'clock to the Pennsylvania station and at 6 o'clock a special train bearing the body and the members of the family and their invited guests will leave for Cleveland. Governor Herrick, General Charles Dick, Andrew Squire, Dr. Cartre and Secretary Elmer Dover will accompany the remains from Washington.

Representative William Alden Smith, of Michigan, related at the White house a touching incident of a recent conversation he had with Senator Hanna. He went to Senator Hanna in the senate chamber one day and invited him to attend, as one of the distinguished men of the country, semi-centennial celebration of the founding of the Republican party, to be held at Jackson, Mich., on July 6 next.

"I don't know where I will be then," was the senator's pathetic reply to the invitation.

"Why, you will be right here, of course," replied Representative Smith reassuringly.

"No," replied Mr. Hanna, "I'm afraid I won't."

"I walked to the rear of the senate chamber," said Mr. Smith, "and, looking back at the senator, wondered if he had a premonition that he might not live long. The impression made by his words never left me."

SHAW ON HANNA.

Washington, Feb. 17.—Secretary of the Treasury Shaw was deeply affected when the news of Senator Hanna's death was brought him. Mr. Shaw said:

"Senator Hanna was one of the noblest characters I ever knew. As a business man he was very successful; as a politician he ranked with the most potent; as a statesman he was broad-minded, far-seeing and intensely patriotic, and as a friend he was the truest of the true. Not by luck nor by circumstances did he work his way from a position quite generally misunderstood, to universal respect and confidence. It was a real character, real patriotism and real worth. His loss is national and in the sad bereavement the humblest will be participant."

Mr. Cannon, speaker of the house of representatives, said:

"As business man, politician, manager and legislator, combining the qualifications which distinguish men in each of these groups. Mr. Hanna was the most forceful citizen of the United States. Others may have done greater work in each of these lines of endeavor, but no man of this or preceding times so far as my recollection or study of our history goes, has combined these qualifications and deserved and won greater distinction in each and all. And he, more than any citizen of his time, welded these interests together, fulfilling the highest ideals of the statesman. To him the great business and labor interests and the great body of the people turned, having full confidence in his judgment and patriotism, making him the most trusted arbiter in the most important public questions arising for solution. His death is a public loss in the full measure of that expression."

HANNA'S SUCCESSOR.

Cincinnati, Feb. 17.—As the Ohio legislature is now in session, Senator Hanna's successor will not be appointed by the governor, but at once elected for the terms expiring in March, 1905, and in March, 1911. Less than seven years ago Mr. Hanna, who had never before held office, succeeded John Sherman as senator and had over seven years yet to serve, having just last month been re-elected. During the past week there has been much comment about the senatorial situation. Among the names mentioned in this connection have been those of Governor Herrick, Charles P. Taft and George B. Cox of Cincinnati; J. H. Hoyt, of Cleveland; J. Warren Kelfer, of Springfield; General Asa W. Jones, of Youngstown and Congressman Dick, Grovesnor, Burton, Nevins and Warnock.

Senator Hanna lived in Northeastern and Senator Foraker in Southwestern Ohio. It is believed by some that the geographical condition is likely to add to the chances of Governor Herrick or Congressman Dick, who reside in the lake districts. For years candidates for United States senators have been indorsed by state conventions, so that the legislative action was merely perfunctory, but now there is every indication of an old-time free-for-all fight before the legislature.

WAS WARMER.

BUT A COLD WIND MADE IT DISAGREEABLE.

The temperature this morning was higher than yesterday but the wind was rather strong and the change, although great enough to have been felt under ordinary circumstances, was not noticed for this reason.

This afternoon a drizzling rain fell and froze as it struck the pavements, rendering it very slippery and unsafe for pedestrians. Warmer weather is promised, however.

Jackson, Ky., Feb. 17.—For the first time a legal saloon was established here when Matt Crawford took out a license, paying $500 therefor. Recently the town council passed a resolution licensing saloons, in the face of a legislative enactment prohibiting saloons in Jackson. Numerous blind tigers are still in operation here.

OVER THE STATE

Aged Man Dies Alone in Hut—Gnawed by Rats.

Big Suit Over a Meteorite—Assignment at Fulton, Ky., Yesterday.

THE OTHER STATE NEWS

Owingsville, Ky., Feb. 17.—In circuit court Wednesday will be called a unique case. It is the suit of H. M. Ewing's heirs vs Thomas J. Pergram for possession of a 300 pound meteorite which fell near Carrington's Rock, this county, November 15, 1902, and which was found last May by J. Hugh Pergram and sold by him to Thomas J. Pergram for a $400 pair of mules. The news of the find became noised abroad and attracted many scientists of renown.

These gentlemen made Mr. Pergram offers for the meteorite, but he declined to sell. An eastern college offered $2,400, but that, too, was declined. Mr. Pergram was preparing to ship it to St. Louis for exhibition at the fair when suit was instituted for possession of it by the F. M. Ewing heirs on whose land it fell. Pergram was placed under $1,000 bond not to dispose of the meteorite. Leading counsel is employed on both sides.

CORPSE GNAWED BY RATS.

Williamstown, Ky., Feb. 1.—Andy Tomlin, who lived near Atwood, Ky., had been missed by his neighbors for several days. His son has been living alone in a cabin near this city for some time. People who lived near the cabin observed that it had been closed since Friday and they broke in the door and were horrified at the sight before them. Tomlin was lying on the floor, face downward, frozen stiff. Rats had eaten away the ends of some of his fingers. It is surmised that the man's son had gone to Atwood, the father concluding to remain until he returned. The unfortunate man was subject to epilepsy, and it is generally believed that when he entered the cabin he fell in a fit and died. The features were badly distorted, as though he had died in great agony.

YEARS OF LITIGATION OVER.

Owensboro, Ky., Feb. 17.—The famous Bransford mill platform case was settled by action of the City Council. The matter has been in litigation for twenty years and seemed no nearer solution than at the beginning. At C. W. Bransford's mill a platform extends over the sidewalk. Bransford claims that it is on his own property, the city that it is in the street. Years ago it was condemned, but the decision was reversed by the Court of Appeals.

Ten years ago the matter was again taken up, and a commission appointed by the court put a valuation of $6,000 on the platform. This the city refused to pay, and another suit was brought. Bransford contended that the removal of the platform would render his mill useless. A compromise was reached by the city agreeing to pay $5,000 for the removal of the platform.

FULTON ASSIGNMENT.

Fulton, Ky., Feb. 17.—Craig Russell, a merchant on Lake street, made an assignment for the benefit of his creditors naming H. T. Smith as assignee. Mr. Russell's liabilities are placed at $5,800 due to foreign creditors in amounts ranging from $40 to $600. He has no creditors in Fulton. His principal creditors are in Cincinnati, New Orleans, Baltimore and Louisville. His estimated assets, consisting of his stock of goods will amount to about $3,500.

The engine was overturned and the oil which was used for fuel ignited the coaches, with the result that the mail car, express car and two passenger coaches were destroyed. Several passengers were slightly injured. The mail was destroyed.

RAILROAD GETS BLAME.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Feb. 17.—The coroner's jury, which has been investigating the collision on the Pere Marquette railroad at East Paris on December 26, in which 22 persons lost their lives, returned a verdict severely censuring the road and charging that the wreck was caused by neglect and incompetent operators.

LAST LECTURE

DR. JENKINS TO CLOSE COURSE TONIGHT WITH STRONGEST OF SERIES.

Dr. Burris A. Jenkins, of Lexington, will deliver the last of a week's series of lectures on the "Life of Christ" under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association, at the Broadway Methodist church, this evening. The subject of the lecture will be "Christ in the Twentieth Century," and it will be the best of the entire series, dealing with modern social problems and their solution from a practical christian standpoint.

Dr. Jenkins' course has been perhaps more enjoyed by the cultured people of Paducah than any intellectual treat, ever before offered them, and great credit is due the Young Men's Christian Association for securing his services. All who have attended the lecture course, express regret that it is coming to a close, and the place Dr. Jenkins has gained in the hearts of Paducah people by his refined and strong personality, will remain a permanent one, and he will always have a welcome here in the future.

Dr. Jenkins will leave the city at 1:35 tomorrow morning. He will deliver an address to the annual state convention of the Y. M. C. A., which will convene in Bowling Green tomorrow for a four days session. His address will be Saturday night on the topic "Young Men and World Evangelization."

INSURANCE DECISION.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 17.—The court of appeals by Judge Paynter affirmed the Hopkins circuit court in the case of Metropolitan Life Insurance company vs Annie Moore. The action was on a policy of $5,000 on the life of the late Abram R. Moore, her husband. The company sought to annul the contract on the ground of fraud. The court holds that when a party seeks to cancel a contract upon the ground of fraud or otherwise, he must first offer to restore what he paid in consideration of the contract.

ANOTHER IROQUOIS VICTIM.

Chicago, Feb. 17.—The death roll of the Iroquois theater disaster has been increased by the death of Leo Pinkus. Pinkus was a musician employed at the theater and was burned while escaping from the rear of the building.

The Pavenia went into Cumberland river yesterday after a tow of ties.

MANY IN DANGER

Missionaries in the Far East Not Heard From.

Those in Korea Reported to Be Safe in a Late Dispatch.

GENERAL CONDITIONS GOOD

Philadelphia, Feb. 17.—Relatives and friends of missionaries now stationed in Korea, Manchuria and Japan are alarmed for their safety.

In Seoul, Miss Minerva L. Gushapel, of Germantown, has for several months been conducting mission work for the Methodist Episcopal church. Nothing has been heard of her since the war began, and uneasiness is felt by her friends.

The Rev. Wilbur C. Swearer, of Beaver, Pa., is also in Seoul, and the Rev. W. Arthur Noble and his wife, of Western Pennsylvania, are in Ping-Yang. The latest news received by the Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church was contained in a letter from Mr. Noble dated January 1. He wrote:

"The general conditions in Seoul and elsewhere are good. However, all our work is much affected by the generally disturbed condition of the country. It is difficult to keep the Christian groups out of political questions. We are expecting Japanese troops to land in two or three days. They are needed here to keep the Korean soldiers in order in case of war."

The Rev. S. W. Thomas, editor of the Philadelphia Methodist, a member of the Methodist missionary board, said that all missionaries stationed near the seat of war have been notified to use their own judgment in remaining or fleeing from their stations.

The following cable message was sent to the Rev. Stephen A. Beck at Seoul:

"Wire us if there is any immediate danger to persons or property in our Korean mission. The board recommends caution."

As no answer was received, another message was sent, as follows: "The mission is advised to act prudently. Secure safety of women and children."

Nashville, Tenn., Feb. 17.—A cablegram was received yesterday by the Foreign mission board of the Southern Presbyterian church, announcing the safety of the missionaries in Korea. The message is from Secretary Bull, and is dated at Kumsu. There are 17 missionaries in the Korean field, and the cablegram says they are undisturbed.

DOCTORS MEET TONIGHT.

Tonight is the regular meeting night of the McCracken county Medical society, and the meeting will be held in the office of Dr. B. B. Griffith. Two weeks ago the society was to have met at Dr. Griffith's office, but there were so few members present that the meeting was adjourned until tonight. There is nothing of importance reported to come up.

LAX-FOS For the Kidney's, Liver and Stomach.

MEXICAN DOLLAR

APPRECIATING ITS VALUE IS 48 1-4 CENTS ABOUT THE SAME AS THE PHILIPPINE PESO.

Washington, Feb. 17.—The insular bureau of the war department is informed that the value of the Mexican dollar at Hong Kong is 48 1-4 cents, a jump of two points since Saturday noon. This places the coin on a practical parity with our own silver Philippine pesos. The Mexican dollar has practically advanced from 37 cents to its present figure within a year. This last increase is explained at the war department by the statement that the war has caused a heavy drain. Chinese and Japanese merchants converting much of their stock into cash to be prepared for emergencies. The result is expected to be the practical extinction of the Mexican dollar in the Philippines, an object very much desired, for a heavy import duty on Mexicans will keep them out of the islands, once they are drawn off.

Capt. Beliaief of the Kozietz, writing to relatives January 9, said:

"I am ready to go to sea any minute. From day to day we have been expecting a fight with the Japanese. We expect sudden attacks, without a previous declaration of war. The wooden fittings are being taken ashore. We have no armor; our strength is only in the guns and the courage of our men. We Russians often depend on courage and the outcome is all right. It may happen that it will not fail us now. I shall do all possible. If they send us to the bottom, say a good by word for us."

GETS WORSE.

NEGRO WILL PROBABLY BE TRIED FOR LARCENY.

King Crawford, the negro being confined in the county jail waiting the action of the court in a larceny charge, does not seem to improve and today County Physician J. W. Pendley will examine him again and recommend to the court to give the man an immediate trial for larceny.

Crawford was arrested more than seven weeks ago in a negro restaurant near First street near Broadway, and as his case was mild, the county physician recommended that he be kept in jail a while to allow for improvement. No change for the better has been noted and the court will probably immediately give the prisoner a trial.

Crawford imagines himself too tired to work and talks of visiting the national officers in Washington. He is often violent.

Lent began today and services commemorating Ash Wednesday and the beginning of the penitential season were held this morning at St. Francis de Sales Catholic church at 8 o'clock, and at Grace Episcopal church at 10 o'clock.

At 7:30 this evening services will again be held at St. Francis de Sales church with a sermon and benediction. During Lent there will be mass at St. Francis de Sales every morning at 7 o'clock, as during the balance of the year, with the addition of evening services Wednesday and Friday. At Grace church Lenten services will be held each afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, with a lecture by the pastor, Rev. John W. Sykes, except Friday when the services will be in the evening.

VETERANS MEET

Confederate Camp Admits Several New Members.

Will Look After the Poor and Needy Members in Good Standing.

At the regular meeting of Camp James Walbert, Confederate Veterans, at the city hall last night the following new members were added: J. L. Gardner, F. M. Boyd, A. W. Stearns, J. A. Cole, G. W. Simmons and Thomas Tyre.

Ten dollars was appropriated for the purchase of an appropriate banner for the camp, and Messrs. R. M. Myles, B. H. Scott and Joe Ullman were appointed to purchase it.

Badges are to be bought for all the members of the camp, and the following committee was named to make the purchase: J. V. Greif, Joe Ullman and R. M. Miles.

G. C. Gleason and Stewart Dick were appointed a committee to look after sick members of the veterans, and Messrs. Joe Potter, W. H. Patterson, and R. M. Miles were appointed to investigate all cases of illness or need of Confederate veterans in good standing.

About a dozen veterans have called for blanks to be filled out in anticipation of the next presentation of crosses of honor, June 3.

The death of Generals Longstreet and John E. Gordon were officially announced.

LINCOLN'S CABIN

IT IS STORED IN NEW YORK AND IS NOT IN KENTUCKY.

New York, Feb. 17.—Dispatches from Kentucky within the last few days have said that the log cabin in which Abraham Lincoln was born and the farm on which he spent his early childhood days would soon be sold at auction for arrears of taxes. According to the Kentucky stories, the log cabin is dilapidated and is now being used for a barn.

The residents of the Blue Grass state have taken these reports seriously and on Saturday a member of the Kentucky legislature introduced a bill to purchase the Lincoln cabin and farm for $10,000.

It may surprise this Kentucky legislator and his constituents, to learn that the log cabin in which a Lincoln was born is not on the old Lincoln farm in Kentucky. It certainly will surprise New Yorkers to know that the historic old cabin is in this city. The logs are stored in a building in College point.

ITCH—RINGWORM.

E. T. Lucas, Wingo, Ky., writes, April 28th, 1902: "For 10 to 12 years I had been afflicted with a malady known as the 'itch.' The itching was most unbearable; I had tried for years to find relief having tried all remedies I could hear of, besides a number of doctors. I wish to state that one single application of Ballard's Snow Liniment cured me completely and permanently. Since then I have used the liniment on two separate occasions for ring worm and it cured completely. 25c, 50c and $1.00 bottle. Sold by Du Bois, Kolb & Co., Paducah, Ky."

THE WEATHER.

MIGHTY SLOW PEOPLE.

If anyone in Paducah depended on prompt action of the municipal legislative boards for a living he or she would soon starve to death. There boards are about the most hopelessly and inexcusably slow things on record. Although the bonds for city improvements were voted nearly four months ago, Paducah is no nearer starting work on the improvements than then.
So far as known, not a single thing has ever been done towards beginning work. We have the same old city hospital, the same old market house and the same old loll-lohies called streets. No steps have even been taken to issue and float the bonds, which in itself is a big and tedious job.

If the men who have control of these things expect to do anything this year it is time they were getting busy.
If they haven't the business sagacity to do it, which would probably be some excuse for the long delay, they ought to resign and let men with at least ordinary intelligence and energy
take their places.

This council of ours has just passed an ordinance that will take for salaries every cent of the fire appropriation except $2500, leaving the city this to build a new fire station, equip it, feed the horses in all departments, pay for all repairs for the year, buy harness—and in fact leave the city only $2500
to pay all the expenses of the Paducah fire departments outside of the salaries, for a whole year. Certainly it must be a bright set of financiers who display such brilliant judgment!

The State senate has also passed the bill providing for a vote on a constitutional amendment to abolish the secret ballot system in Kentucky. The House passed it last week, but the people will attend to it when they get a vote on it later. Kentucky will never, with the consent of the people, vote to return to antiquated methods
such as the viva voce system of voting is. Every laboring man in the state regardless of politics will probably be found lined up against it when a vote is taken.

Russia has withdrawn from the World's Fair exposition. It is not certain whether this is because she has about as much as she can look after at home, or simply because she thinks she will thus spite the United States. After this war is over, it is feared Russia's exhibit would be fit for only the museum, or the hospital department.

It is generally believed, if some of the papers are not wrong, that the Courier-Journal will bolt the National Democratic convention this year if the Bryan crowd dominates it. If it doesn't, it will doubtless feel disappointed, while if the Courier-Journal's kind of Democrats win in the convention Mr. Bryan and the others will bolt. Beautiful outlook for Democracy!

We shall probably have to trust to history to learn exactly how much of the war news we read every day is true. Between the enthusiastic but somewhat hampered war correspondents and the press censor, we have to take what is passed out to us and trust to luck to get the facts later on.

If the legislature shows no more regard for the wishes of the people in establishing a new judicial district for Judge Redwine than it did for the law and constitution in creating the new county of Beckham, the people might as well prepare to have the imposition saddled onto them.

STRICT LAWS

IOWA LAW EXTENDS LIABILITY OF RAILROADS.

Railway legislation frequently takes curious forms, says the Railway age.
The State of Iowa has been somewhat profligate in this respect and a bill has recently been introduced in the Legislature of that State to the effect that, notwithstanding a railroad in contract ing for shipment of property stipulates that it shall not be liable for damages incurred in transportation beyond its own line, it shall be made party defendant in any such case that may arise. This same state of Iowa has for many years insisted on the right of the shipper to direct the route his property shall take beyond the initial line, all of which presents an inconsistency which is interesting. To forbid the choice of a connection in the carrying out of a contract and at the same time hold the initial line for damage done by such a connection which is forced upon it against its own will, is somewhat anomalous. It does not seem as if argument or law were necessary to establish the right of a contracting party in any line of business to the choice of the instrumentalities by which the engagement shall be carried out, but shippers do not seem to view it in that light. Fortunately a case involving exactly that point is already in the courts and will finally be passed upon by the Supreme Court of the United States.
Until that time the question must remain unsettled.

CARS PILED UP

N., C. & ST. L. TRAIN GOES INTO THE DITCH.

Eleven cars of fertilizer from Nashville to New Orleans over the N., C.
and St. L. were piled in the ditch 93 miles below Paducah, at Beuna Vista, Tenn., by a flange on one of the wheels breaking. There were 28 cars in the train, which was a double header in charge of Conductor Hill and Engineers Rockhold and Englert. The passenger train due last night at 8 o'clock was about three hours late, and the track was not cleared until this morning. No one was injured by the accident.

"DO IT TODAY."

The time worn injunction, "Never put off 'til tomorrow what you can do today," is now generally presented in this form: "Do it today!" That is the terse advice we want to give you about that hacking cough or demoralizing cold with which you have been struggling for several days, perhaps weeks. Take some reliable remedy for it today—and let that remedy be Dr. Boschee's German Syrup, which has been in use for over thirty-five years. A few doses of it will undoubtedly relieve your cough or cold,
and its continued use for a few days will cure you completely. No matter how deep seated your cough, even if dread consumption has attacked your lungs, German Syrup will surely effect a cure—as it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of lung trouble. New trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists.

OTHER CITY HALL NOTES

An aged man named Hugh Quinn appeared at the city hall this morning and applied for transportation to Caseyville where he has relatives.

He was suffering from rheumatism and could not lift his left arm. Last night he found himself penniless, and pawed his overcoat for 30 cents to get a bed and supper.

Mayor Yeiser furnished him transportation to Caseyville on the Joe Fowler and enough money to get the overcoat out of the pawnshop was made up by subscription at the city hall.

Mayor Yeiser has been besieged by paupers since the late cold weather set in and mendicants of all descriptions appear at the city hall for assistance.

This morning a robust negro girl appeared and asked for "help." She stated she was eighteen years of age and lived alone. Mayor Yeiser suggested that she "hire out," but she couldn't find work. Such matters are referred to the police for investigation, and if the facts as set out by the applicant are found to be true, the city always furnished fuel and food. Often it is found that the facts have been misrepresented and in such cases the applicants are "passed up."

The council will be called to meet just before the board of aldermen meets tomorrow night, and give final passage to the general ordinance providing gates for railroad crossings.
The aldermanic board then can take up the measure. There is opposition in this board to requiring railroads to place gates at all the crossings. It is probable that at least two or three of the members will be in favor of gates at some of the crossings, but not at all of those mentioned heretofore.

Mr. Will McCutcheon, who lost 21
hogs from his farm on the Cairo road, and thought the whole drove had been stolen, today found them through an advertisement in The Sun. They were all beyond the Pines, about four miles from the city, and he was notified today of their location.

A number of persons are already connecting their homes with the sewerage extension from Ninth and Tennessee streets to the cannery factory, and the improvements seem to be greatly appreciated by a number of persons.

Officer John Hessian, of the I. C.
union depot beat, found a pocketbook containing money at the depot this morning. The owner can recover the pocketbook by calling at the police station and entering a description.

Mr. Jim Hildreth reported to the police that his horse was driven away last night. This morning he found the animal in front of the Fraternity building where it had been left.

Vedder and the Publishers.

The line of difference between an artist's most conscientious work and the more popular work which he might get more money for is often very slight, and is a constant temptation. But there are still a few staunch idealists who hold out. The new venerable Elihu Vedder sits in his plain lodgings in Rome and roars against the tempting American publishers who beseech him to illustrate their new enterprises.

"Why should I? Why should I? I'm poor enough, you can see. But if I illustrate your unholy thing it won't be my best art, and I swear I won't come down."

Would there were more of him!—

Hung Jury in Smallman Case— Liebel Wins Suit Against City

Another Jury Case Finished Today—
Small Docket in Police Court.

NEWS FROM OTHER COURTS

The case of Nettie Smallman against Henry Temple was given to the jury late yesterday afternoon and the jury seems to be hung.

The case has attracted a great deal of interest in legal circles, as it is one of the first of its kind ever tried here.

Robert Smallman the plaintiff's husband, was killed by the defendant in alleged self-defense. The point of law to be decided is if the cutting was necessary. If the jury thinks the cutting was unnecessary and that Mr.
Temple might have escaped without violence, it may find for the plaintiff, who sued for $20,000 damages.

The case of Abe Bogard, colored, against the I. O., was given to the jury this afternoon.

The plaintiff sues for $2,000 damages alleged to have been sustained by being struck by an engine in the I. O.
yards.

The case of Doherty against Brogan
was dismissed.

In the case of H. V. Keebler against the I. C., in which a verdict for $1-250 damages was rendered, the defendant made a motion for a new trial.

Sam Liebel was this morning given a judgment for $50 damages against the city of Paducah. The suit was brought in a lower court where a judgment was rendered for the defendant. Liebel appealed from the quarterly court to the circuit and now receives a judgment. His horse had a leg badly injured by a defective street bridge.

The case of Cornelius Johnson
against the city of Paducah, Loenstein Bros. against Rudy, Phillips & Co., and James Cardin against the Lang-staff Orme Mfg Co. were continued.

POLICE COURT

Judge Sanders held a short session of police court this morning.

Jim Green, white, charged with flourishing a pistol about Ernest Oz-ment, was dismissed of the charge while Ozment, who is alleged to have started the trouble, was fined $5 and costs for a breach of the peace.

Maggie White, colored, who stole two dresses and a quilt from a clothes line in Mr. C. F. Aker's yard, on South 13th street, was sentenced to 30 days in the city jail.

Harry Travis, colored, was fined $5
and costs for a breach of the peace.

hence a sale is desired. The money

FOODS FOR THE TRAVELER

Government Now Settles What They Shall Be in Germany.

Several of the German governments have recently manifested great interest in catering to the stomachs of railroad passengers within their borders. In Germany, much more than here, refreshments are hawked alongside the passenger trains by waiters attached to the station restaurants.
Now the authorities in Saxony have ordered that these things must be included in the offerings:

Cool drinking water—for not more than 5 pfennigs (1.2 cents) a glass of 0.4 litre (the capacity of a small beer mug); mineral water for not more than 5 cents a small bottle, and fresh fruit in season, with the price plainly marked.

Bottles and glasses must be kept perfectly clean, and the provisions in the station buffets must be kept under glass to protect them from dust. Severe penalties are to be inflicted for violations of these rules.

An Expert Pension Drawer.

Mrs. Anna Thornton of Louisville has been drawing four pensions from the government as the widow of our soldiers serving in the war of the rebellion. She has made no concealment of the facts and no fraud is charged against her, as each pension was granted in accordance with law.

Surplus Wheat Crop of 1901.

The world's wheat surplus of the crops of 1901 is put at 13 million quarters, about half as much as the United Kingdom uses yearly.

"It Was Like a Kind Blessing"

"Cheerfully—Gratefully—I Join My Voice With the Thousands Who Are Praising

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

WAS CURED AFTER YEARS OF STOMACH TROUBLE.

Milwaukee, Dec. 18, 1903.—"Through a friend of mine I was advised to take Paine's Celery Compound for stomach trouble, with which I was afflicted for years. My food had lost taste.

"I had no appetite and my system was entirely out of order.

"There was a sudden change. "I wondered; for it was like a kind blessing falling on me.

"It surely performs its wonders in a marvelous way, and cheerfully and with gratitude I join my voice with the thousands who are praising Paine's Celery Compound. It has made me a well woman."—MRS. MARY KENNEY.

Dyspepsia—the great destroyer of health and happiness—takes many forms. Discontent, ill temper, low spirits, despondency, dizziness, sick headache, heartburn, palpitation of the heart, distention of the stomach—all of them are dyspepsia.

Its dark influence throws its shadow on the happiness of many homes. The underlying cause of all dyspepsia is that the organs of digestion HAVE NOT THE NERVE STRENGTH to do their work properly.

The true cure must be a CURE OF THE INNER NERVES, which govern the digestive organs and the entire human system.

Paine's Celery Compound is curing thousands of dyspepsias every day in just this way, as sensible and scientific as it is marvelous. Sick headache, palpitation, dizziness and heartburn are usually relieved by a single dose of Paine's Celery Compound.

"IT IS WONDERFUL."

Her Weak Nerves Are Fed and Rebuilt by Paine's Celery Compound.

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 25, 1903.—"I was on the verge of nervous prostration and could not sleep for any length of time. When I did finally fall into a dose it was only for a short time and I always awoke feeling unrefreshed.

"I had no appetite and was rapidly losing weight. I heard about Paine's Celery Compound and after taking two bottles of it I could sleep all right.

"My health is now fully restored. Paine's Celery Compound is a wonderful remedy and I advise everybody suffering from headache or nervousness to use it."—MRS. LIZZIE RAITNER, 1443 S. 9th St.

"Don't waste time on SYMPTOMS. Cure the CAUSE—the NERVES."

—Prof. E. E. Phelps, M. D., LL. D., of Dartmouth University—Famous Discoverer of Paine's Celery Compound.

MUSICAL TREAT.

An unusual musical treat was enjoyed at the First Christian church last night in the recital of Prof. Felix Heink, a German pianist and vocalist of note. Prof. Heink's program was a varied one, showing his skill as a pianist and vocalist from classical selections to popular ballads and bright modern selections.

Two of his own compositions, the one entitled "Remembrance," and containing the fine shading of soft, low notes, and the other "Militaire" being a composition of volume and brilliance, were especially enjoyed. He accomplished the rather unusual novelty of playing a difficult selection with the left hand alone, bringing out the music with almost as much force as if he were using both hands.

A large audience of Paducah's most cultured people were much pleased with the talented musician.

THE OLD PLEA.

HE "DIDN'T KNOW IT WAS LOADED."

The coffee drinker seldom realizes that coffee contains the drug Caffeine, a serious poison to the heart and nerves, thereby causing many other forms of disease noticeably dyspepsia.

"I was a lover of coffee and used it for many years and did not realize the bad effects I was suffering from its use.

"At first I was troubled with indigestion but did not attribute the trouble to the use of coffee but thought it arose from other causes. With these attacks I had sick headache, nausea and vomiting. Finally my stomach was in such a condition I could scarcely retain any food.

"I consulted a physician; was told all my troubles came from indigestion but was not informed what caused the indigestion, so I kept on with the coffee and kept on with the troubles too and my case continued to grow worse from year to year until it developed into chronic diarrhoea, nausea and severe attacks of vomiting so I could keep nothing on my stomach and became a mere shadow reduced from 150 to 125 pounds.

"A specialist informed me I had a very severe case of catarrh of the stomach which had got so bad he could do nothing for me and I became convinced my days were numbered.

"Then I chanced to see an article setting forth the good qualities of Postum and explaining how coffee injures people so I concluded to give Postum a trial. I soon saw the good effects—my headaches were less frequent, nausea and vomiting only came on at long intervals and I was soon a changed man, feeling much better.

"Then I thought I could stand coffee again, but as soon as I tried it my old troubles returned and I again turned to Postum. Would you believe it I did this three times before I had sense enough to quit coffee for good and keep on with the Postum; the result is I am now well man with no more headaches, sick stomach or vomiting and have already gained back to 147 pounds." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

NOTHING TO BE AFRAID OF.

Little Girl Had Found Out What Caused the Lightning.

Gertrude's father bought a camera a short time ago, and tiny Gertrude has been much interested in everything he did with it. One evening recently a heavy thunderstorm came up. Usually Gertrude was afraid of thunder and lightning, but this evening she stood by the window watching the flashes of lightning in quite an unconcerned manner. "Come away from that window, Gertrude," said her brother Tom, who is not over and above brave during a thunderstorm. "Pooh! Who's afraid?" answered Gertrude. "I know now what makes the lightning; it's the angels taking flashlight pictures."

LAX-FOS For the Kidney's Liver and Stomach

CATARRH A COMMON COMPLAINT.

Catarrh begins with a stubborn cold in the head, inflammation or soreness of the membrane lining of the nose, discharge of mucus matter, headaches, neuralgia and difficult breathing, and even in this early stage is almost intolerable. But when the filthy secretions begin to drop back into the throat and stomach, and the blood becomes polluted and the system contaminated by the catarrhal poison, then the sufferer begins to realize what a disgusting and sickening disease Catarrh is. It affects the kidneys and stomach as well as other parts of the body. It is a constitutional disease and as inhaling mixtures, salves, ointments, etc., are never more than palliative or helpful, even in the beginning of Catarrh, what can you expect from such treatment when it becomes chronic and the whole system affected? Only such a remedy as S. S. S. can reach this obstinate, deep-seated disease and purge the blood of the catarrhal poison. S. S. S. purifies and builds up the diseased blood, and the inflamed membranes are healed and the excessive secretion of mucus ceases when new, rich blood is coming to the diseased parts, and a permanent cure is the result.

S. S. S. is guaranteed purely vegetable and a reliable remedy for Catarrh in all stages. Write if in need of medical advice; this will cost you nothing.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

THE SINS OF THE PARENT FREQUENTLY FALL UPON THE CHILDREN.

Especially terrible does it seem that children should be born into the world—as they frequently are—having in their little innocent bodies the germs of Specific Blood Poison, or, more frequently, Scrofula, which is, as a rule, the result of Specific Blood Poison in some ancestor.

It would be an outlook almost too intolerable to contemplate if such scourges as scrofula and other forms of blood poisoning were incurable.

Yet for long centuries these diseases have baffled the most skillful medical science.

Men and women in the past have resorted to cures for this disease which were almost as obnoxious and dangerous as the disease itself.

The taking into the system of mercury and other mineral drugs cannot be too strenuously condemned and avoided in such cases.

That a cure, absolute and sure, can be effected is evidenced by the following letter, telling of the result of taking

FOERG'S REMEDY.

To Whom It May Concern: We have two little twin girls that were badly afflicted with Scrofula. After trying three of the best doctors we could employ they continued to get worse all the while. I was advised by a friend to try Foerg's Remedy, so I procured one bottle, and it has cured them sound and well. This was four years ago, and no sign of return, so I cannot say too much for this medicine, for I think it is the best blood medicine in the world.

This is a true copy of statement sent us by Mr. Courtney, and is on file in our office.

Don't delay, but go to your druggist and get a bottle. If your druggist does not handle this remedy send us $1.00 for one bottle or $5.00 for six bottles, with our absolute guarantee or money refunded by druggist or this company in full. All packages sent in plain wrappers. All correspondence strictly confidential.

SELF-MADE MEN IN ENGLAND.

We hear so much of American captains of industry, of John D. Rockefeller, the farm laborer's son; of Edison, the newspaper boy; of Yerkes, the youthful soap jobber, that we are apt to forget British giants of perseverance. Livingston worked as a factory hand until 25; the man who sought and found him in the wilds was born in a workhouse. The great firm of W. H. Smith & Sons was begun by two brothers so poor that the wife of one had to go into domestic service. The house of Tangye began in a little workshop, whose rent was but 4s. a week; that of Lever Brothers had a scarcely more pretentious start at Bolton. A coffee stall on a London curb was the fount and origin of Pearce & Plenty; 700 pounds once formed the total capital of the "universal" Whiteley. Bass' Brewery was founded by a carrier; the Elder-Dempster line of steamers by a ship's apprentice, now Sir Alfred Jones. The inventor of Bessemer steel was once a poor, almost starving boy in London, the poorer for having devoted his labor to an invention of whose profits the government robbed him. So one might go on throughout the whole range of our industries. It is the sergeant and the plain constable of life's affairs who have made this nation industrially great, and carried its flag and fame to the ends of the earth.—St. James Gazette.

COMING EVENTS.

While Cardinal Gibbons, then a monsignore, was living in Rome a few years ago, he went to dine at the American college. Dinner over, some bonhomies representing hats of every description were passed around as souvenirs. The waiter carrying the tray on which they were, stumbled just as he reached Monsignore Gibbons, and a miniature Cardinal's hat, the red tricorne, rolled from the tray into the prelate's plate.

Count Cassell, who was a warm friend of the monsignore, saw the episode, and leaning across the table, quoted the maxim:

"Coming events cast their shadows before."

Everybody laughed, and so did the monsignore, but a year later, when the dignity of the Cardinal was conferred upon him, several recalled the dinner at the American college.—Chattanooga Times.

JUST SO.

"Once—," slowly said honest Farmer Hornbeak, in the midst of the Sit and Argue club, assembled in the corner grocery.

"Once—what?" snapped Hi Spry, a bit irritated by the old man's deliberate way.

"Once," proceeded the first speaker, "there was a man by the name of William Jennin's Bryan."

Then he lapsed into silence, having said all there was to say on the subject.—Puck.

CHILDS' REMARKABLE MEMORY

The task allotted a little Stockel girl of 9½ years in a Dublin entertainment was to answer any one of 18,500 questions that might be asked by the audience.

A license for the child under the new children's act was applied before the Dublin police magistrate, who refused to grant it, remarking that the child was to have her brain "tortured" by 18,500 questions. It was contended, on the other hand, that no mental strain was involved.

A list of questions was distributed among the audience, who asked any of them they liked. Such questions as these were included: "When did the Empress Frederick die?" "When was Parnell born?" "When was the Tay bridge disaster?"—London, Mail.

FORCE OF HABIT.

Nurse had come to bear her little charge away from the children's party, and the damsel was pleading for a respite. She begged so hard that eventually the hostess joined in her protest.

"Do let her stay half an hour longer, nurse!" she begged. "If Hilda's mother is angry with you, throw the blame on me."

"Sorry, mum, but my young man is giving a party tonight, and if I'm not there just on the minute he'll shut the door in my face. It's force of habit with him, mum. You see, he's a timekeeper in a factory."—Cassell's Journal.

VARIABLE ROUTES TO FLORIDA.

In addition to the numerous facilities provided for the comfort and pleasure of Florida travelers, the Southern Railway and Queen & Crescent Route have this year added a new and unusually attractive feature in the form of a variable route tourist ticket, by means of which, at a slight additional expense, the going trip may be made via Chattanooga, Atlanta and Macon and the return trip via Savannah, Columbia, Asheville, Hot Springs and Knoxville—or vice versa—including stop off, if desired, at all of these and other points, so that a passenger may visit Lookout Mountain, the beautiful "Sapphire Country" the "Land of the Sky" and the principle commercial centers and tourist resorts en route.

The "Chicago and Florida Special" a superb train composed of through Pullman Drawing Room sleepers, composite car and dining car, leaves Cincinnati every evening except Sunday, via the Queen & Crescent Route. A handsome observation sleeper leaving Louisville at 7:35 p. m., is attached to the "Special" at Lexington and this train then runs through solid via Southern railway from Chattanooga to Jacksonville and St. Augustine, arriving at 9:30 p. m. and 10:35 p. m., respectively the next evening, making connection at Jacksonville for interior Florida points.

The "Florida Limited" leaves Cincinnati every morning the year around via the Queen & Crescent Route connecting at Lexington with the Southern railway trains from Louisville. This train also runs through solid to Jacksonville and St. Augustine via Southern Railway from Chattanooga, carrying sleeping cars, observation and dining car, arriving at 9:45 a. m., and 11:15 a. m., respectively.

The Q. & C. "Special" leaving Cincinnati every evening carries Pullman sleeper through to Jacksonville via Southern railway from Harrison Jet. through Asheville, the "Land of the Sky" and Savannah. This train also connects at Lexington with train from Louisville.

THE STROLLERS

By FREDERIC S. ISHAM,

Author of "Under the Rose"

Copyright, 1902, by THE BOWEN-MERRILL COMPANY

Saint-Prosper pushed open the door. The interior was so dim that at first he could not distinguish the occupant, but when his eyes became accustomed to the darkness he discovered the figure of the prisoner, who was lying with his back toward him on the ground of the little hut with nothing but a thin blanket beneath him. The only light revealing the barren details of this Indian residence sifted through the small doorway or pierced timorously down through a narrow aperture in the roof that served for a chimney. As Saint-Prosper gazed at the prostrate man the latter moved uneasily, and from the parched lips fell a few words:

"Look the doors, Oly-koeks! Hear the songsters, Mynheer Ten Breeces! Birds of prey, you Dutch varlet! What do you think of the mistress of the manor? The serenading antirenters have come for her." Then he repeated more slowly: "The squaw Pewasch! For seventeen and one-half ells of duffels! A rare principlality for the scornful minx! Lord, how the birds sing now around the manor—screech owls, catbirds, bobolinks!"

The soldier started back, vivid memories assailing his mind. Who was this man whose brain, independent of the corporeal shell, played waywardly with scenes, characters and events indissolubly associated with his own life?

"Do you know, Little Thunder, the Lord only rebuked the Pharisees?" continued the prostrate man. "Though the Pharisee triumphs after all! But it was the stroller I wanted, not the principlality."

He stirred quickly, as if suddenly aware of the presence of another in the hut, and, turning, lifted his head in a startled manner, surveying the figure near the doorway with conflicting emotions written on his pallid countenance.

Arising deliberately, his body, like a machine, obeying automatically some unconscious power, he confronted the officer, who recognized in him, despite his thin, worn face and eyes, unnaturally bright, the once pretentious land baron, Edward Mauville. Moving toward the door, gazing on Saint-Prosper as though he was one of the figures of a disturbing phantasm, he reached the threshold, and, lifting his hand above his head, the prisoner placed it against one of the supports of the hut and stood leaning there. From the creation of his mind's eye, as he, doubtlessly half conscious of his weakness, designated the familiar form, he glanced at the sentinel and shook as though abruptly conscious of his situation. Across the valley the soldiers showed signs of bestirring themselves, the smoke of many fires hovering earthward beneath the mist. Drawing his thin frame proudly to its full height, with a gesture of disdain for physical weakness, and setting his keen, wild eyes upon the soldier, Mauville said in a hollow tone:

"Is that really you, Mr. Saint-Prosper? At first I thought you but a trick of the imagination. Well, look your fill upon me! You are my Nemesis come to see the end."

"I am here by chance, Edward Mauville; an officer of the American army." "And I a spy in the Mexican army. So we are authorized foes."

Rubbing his trembling hands together, his eyes shifted from the dark birds

He lifted his head in a startled manner. To the mist, then from the phantom forests back to the hut, finally resting on his shabby boots of yellow leather. The sunlight penetrating a rift in the mist settled upon him as he moved feebly and uncertainly through the doorway and seated himself upon a stool. This sudden glow brought into relief his ragged, unkempt condition, the sallowness of his face and his wasted form, and Saint-Prosper could not but contrast pitifully this cheerless object, in the garb of a ranchero, with the prepossessing, sportive heir who had driven through the Shadengo valley.

Apparently now the sun was grateful to his bent, stricken figure, and, basking in it, he recalled his distress of the previous night:

"This is better. Not long ago I awoke with chattering teeth. 'This,' I said, 'is life, a miasma, cold, discomfort.' Yes, yes, a fever, a miasma, with phantoms fighting you—struggling to choke you—but now!" He paused and, fumbling in his pocket, drew out a cigarette case, which he opened, but found empty. A cigar the other handed him he took mechanically and lighted with scrupulous care. Near at hand the guard, more cheerful under the prospect of speedy relief from his duties, could be heard humming to himself: "Oh, Teedy-foley, you are my darling! You are my looking glass night and morning!"

Watching the smoker, Saint-Prosper asked himself how came Mauville to be serving against his own country or why he should have enlisted at all, this pleasure seeking man of the world, to whom the hardships of a campaign must have been as novel as distasteful.

"Are you satisfied with your trial?" said the soldier at length. "Yes," returned Mauville, as if breaking from a reverie. "I confess I am the secret agent of Santa Anna and would have carried information from your lines. I am here because there is more of the Latin than the Anglo-Saxon in me. Many of the old families—with a touch of insane pride—"did not regard the purchase of Louisiana by the United States as a transaction alienating them from other ties. Fealty is not a commercial commodity. But this," he added scornfully, "is something you cannot understand. You soldiers of fortune draw your swords for any master who pays you."

The ash fell from the cigar as Mauville held the weed before his eyes. "It is an hourglass," he muttered. "When smoked, oh, for the power of Jupiter to order four nights in one, the better to pursue his love follies! Love follies," he repeated, and as a new train of fancy was awakened he regarded Saint-Prosper venomously.

"Do you know she is the daughter of a marquis?" said Mauville suddenly. "Who?" asked the soldier. "The stroller, of course. You can never win her," he added contemptuously. "She knows all about that African affair."

Saint-Prosper started violently, but in a moment Mauville's expression changed, and he appeared plunged in thought.

"The last time I saw her," he said, half to himself, "she was dressed in black, her face as noonday, her hair black as midnight, crowning her with languorous allurements!"

He repeated the last word several times like a man in a dream. "Allurement, allurement!" and again relapsed into a silence that was half stupor.

By this time the valley, with the growing of the day, began to lose much of its evil aspect, and the eye, tempted through glades and vistas, lingered upon gorgeous forms of indolence.

As he surveyed this prospect, the brief silence was broken by a bugle call and the tramping of feet.

"The trumpet shall sound and the dead shall arise," said the prisoner, turning and facing the soldiers calmly. "You have come for me?" he asked quietly.

"Yes," said the officer in command. "General Scott has granted your request in view of certain circumstances, and you will be shot instead of hanged."

The face of the prisoner lighted wonderfully. He drew himself erect and smiled with some of the assumption of the old insolence, that expression Saint-Prosper so well remembered. His features took on a semblance to the careless, dashing look they had borne when the soldier crossed weapons with him at the Oaks, and he neither asked nor intended to give quarter.

"I thank you," he observed courteously. "At least I shall die like a gentleman. I am ready, sir! Do not fasten my hands. A Mauville can die without being tied or bound."

The officer hesitated. "As to that"—he began.

"It is a reasonable request," said Saint-Prosper in a low tone. Mauville abruptly wheeled. His face, dark and sinister, was lighted with venomous malignity. An unnaturally clear perception replaced the stupor of his brain, and, bending toward Saint-Prosper, his eye rested upon him with such rancor and malevolence the soldier involuntarily drew away. But one word fell from the land baron's lips, low, vibrating, full of inexpressible bitterness—"Traitor!"

"Come, come!" interrupted the officer in command of the execution party. "Time is up. As I was told not to fasten your hands, you shall have your wish. Confess now, that is accommodating."

"Thanks," returned Mauville carelessly, relapsing into his old manner. "You are an obliging fellow. I would do as much for you."

"Not much danger of that," growled the other. "But we'll take the will for the deed. Forward, march!"

May Be Weak. One Person in Four Has a Weak Heart.

One of the surest signs of a weak heart is shortness of breath after exercise. Your heart is not able to pump the blood fast enough to your lungs. Some of the other symptoms of Heart Trouble are: Pains in the Side, Back and Shoulder; Fainting or Weak Spells; Dry Cough; Swelling of Feet and Ankles; Cold Feet or Hands.

No one can afford to allow a weak heart to go without medicine, because weak heart means poor circulation, and poor circulation means weak lungs, stomach, liver, kidneys, etc.

If, therefore, you suspect heart trouble, begin taking Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure. The Heart Cure will do you good, as it is a splendid tonic for the blood and nerves, and will revitalize your entire system.

Finally, remember, Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure is sold under a guarantee that the first bottle will do you good. If it doesn't—your money back.

"I was afflicted with heart trouble for three years. I would be apparently all right, and without a moment's warning would fall as though shot. The attacks were frequent, and a terrible dread possessed me, as I never knew when or where, nor under what conditions I would be attacked, and whether I would survive them. I consulted and was treated by some of the most eminent physicians of the state, and finding relief from this source, I began taking Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, and began to improve at once. I used ten bottles, which entirely cured me, as I have not had an attack for five years."—MRS. JOHN DRESBACH, Leipsic, O.

VISIT OF S. S. WORKER.

Rev. J. M. Carter, D. D., will preach at the Methodist Episcopal church in Mechanicsburg tonight and Thursday night. Rev. Mr. Carter has been in the ministry for more than 30 years. During these years he has served as pastor on a number of charges, has been presiding elder for several years and has been in attendance at the last three general conferences of the above named church. He occupies, at present, the position of field secretary of the Sunday school union, his territory being principally in the south, and his visit to Paducah is in the interest of this great work of training the children.

His lecture on last Sunday and also the sermon at night, was highly appreciated by the people who attended.

—Mr. Wm. Rogers, who lives four miles from the city on the Mayfield road, had his buggy demolished by his horse late yesterday afternoon near Seventeenth and Tennessee streets. The animal ran away and collided with a fence.

UNHAPPY HOMES Caused By

Weakness in Men

A Michigan Specialist Finds an Easy Way to Cure Any Case of Sexual Weakness Even in the Oldest Men. This Wonderful Cure Has a Most Marvelous Record of Successes.

SENT FREE TO ALL WHO APPLY IN WRITING

There are thousands of cheerless homes in this country filled with discontent and unhappiness, lacking in love and companionship through the sexual weakness and physical impairment of a man whose years do not justify such a condition. Indiscretions, abuses and recklessness often cause a temporary cessation of vital power that instantly yields to the wonderful treatment discovered by the great specialist, Dr. H. C. Raynor, of Detroit, Michigan. It has remained for this great physician to discover that sexual weakness and similar troubles can be cured and in remarkable short space of time. This treatment does not ruin the stomach, adding the miseries such injury entails, but it is a new treatment that easily and quickly restores youthful vigor to men as old as 85.

The discovery is beyond doubt the most scientific and comprehensive that our attention has ever been called to. From all sides we hear private reports of cures in stubborn cases of sexual weakness, enlargement of the prostate, varicocele, spermatorrhoea, lost manhood, impotency, emissions, premature, shrunken organs, lack of virile power, bashfulness and timidity and like unnatural conditions. It does this without appliances, vacuum pumps, electric belts or anything of that kind.

Satisfactory results are produced in a day's use and a perfect cure in a short time, regardless of age or the cause of your condition.

The lucky discoverer simply desires to get in touch with all men who can make use of such a treatment. They should address him in confidence, Dr. H. C. Raynor, 161 Luck Building, Detroit, Mich., and immediately on receipt of your name and address it is his agreement with this paper to send you a free receipt or form of this modern treatment by which you can cure yourself at home.

TO FILE A SUIT

Against the County to Collect Small Pox Claims.

Joint Finance Committee Held a Meeting This Morning—$20,000 Railroad Shop Bonds to Be Refunded.

THE TEST CASE SUIT

The joint finance committee, composed of Aldermen Orme, Singleton and Kraus, and Councilmen Rigelsberger, Ingram and Rehkopf, met in Mayor D. A. Yeiser's office this morning and authorized legal steps to be taken in the matter of making the county pay for pest house patients the city has cared for during the past five years. Other matters were also acted on at the meeting.

For many years the city has paid all expenses incurred in keeping up the pest house, which has been a benefit to the county as well as to the city, and the county has never paid the city anything for caring for the county patients. Other cities are making the counties pay and it was decided that the same plans be adopted here.

It was decided this morning that the county must pay for the patients cared for by the city and Auditor Kirkland was ordered to check up the number of patients cared for during the past five years, the law not allowing the city to go back any further, although the city has cared for county patients much longer than this time, and to furnish this report to the city solicitor, who will immediately bring suit against the county for the total amount.

The total amount of debt as near as can be roughly approximated, will be $15,000. The members of the committee seem to have no doubt about the outcome, judging from a recent decision of the court of appeals.

In the matter of the refunding of the $20,000 railroad shop bonds which matured many months ago, the committee ordered new bonds printed for the renewal, a purchaser having been found.

The committee also ordered a suit brought to test the validity of the $200,000 street improvement bond issue, simply to make them more valuable. This matter was agitated some

HARTFORD, KY., Dec. 15, 1903.

NATIONAL TOILET CO., PARIS, TENN.

Gentlemen:—It affords me great pleasure to state, regarding your SATINOLA, that my face was blotched very badly, I had tried other remedies, and all seemed to bring out the splotches plainer. When your Miss Ray told me about SATINOLA I had but little faith in it, but used two boxes, just as directed, and now haven't a splotch on my face, and have a splendid complexion. So many ask me what has given me such a good color. I cannot praise Satinola enough, and would not take anything for what it has done for me.

Very truly,
MRS. I. B. FOSTER.
